Four SSAT Options

information below applies to students in the US

Paper-Based

Option 1: Standard Test Date
Option 2: Flex test

Frequency: 6 standard dates
(5 dates relevant to metro-Atlanta schools)
Flex: 1 time/academic year

For those unable to test on these Saturdays due to religious reasons, limited Sunday testing for Standard dates is also available.

Prometric Test Center

Option 3 ←computer-based→ Option 4

The SSAT computer-based versions follow the same design as the paper-based version, but are offered on the computer. Students must feel comfortable typing the essay

At Home

How many times can my student take the SSAT?

Students can take up to 2 computer-based tests in an application's cycle and up to 5 paper-based tests and only 1 Flex Test.

Two Computer-Based Options:

SSAT at Home (Computer)

Weekend availability every 3–4 weeks

SSAT-at-Home dates are here

SSAT at Home

There are no minimum separation dates between SSAT tests. However, a student is limited to a maximum of two computer-based tests in an admissions' cycle

SSAT at Prometric (Computer)

Daily availability

For more info about Prometric Center locations:

Go to proscheduler.prometric.com to search for local test centers. Search for the SSAT under “test sponsor” dropdown menu. Seats are only guaranteed when registration is complete

Three big benefits of computer-based testing:

1. more testing options (effectively only 5 national paper/ paper dates)
2. can schedule closer to the test date (up to 3 days before the test!)
3. scores are posted in about 4 business days (about 7 business days faster!)

One additional paper/ pencil option:

SSAT Flex Availability (Paper)

The Flex Test is any paper/ pencil test provided on a ‘non-standard’ date.

It may be administered at a member school in a group environment or at an Educational Consultant’s office in a private setting. A student may sit for only ONE Flex test per academic year

SSAT Score Release Schedule for 2023-2024

Paper-Based Standard

SSAT scores are released up to two weeks after the test day. Schools receive the results on Tuesday and families on Wednesday.

Paper-Based Flex

SSAT scores are processed when EMA receives them and are released to schools and families as soon as the scores are ready to distribute.

SSAT at Prometric Test Centers

SSAT results are released weekly to schools every Wednesday and families every Thursday.

SSAT at Home

SSAT results are released the week following the test date (3-4 business days). Schools receive results on Wednesday and families on Thursday.

When do Schools Receive Scores?

Schools generally receive student SSAT scores the day before families do, if scheduled before scores are released. If you prefer to add schools or educational consultants after the SSAT score release (so you can review the scores first), then recipients will have immediate access.
